

How to get to the base camp Yuksom

* By public transport - Shared taxi from NJP to Jorhang which you can get outside the NJP station. It takes 3 hours to reach Jorhang and costs about Rs 120.

At Jorhang go to the taxi stand (anybody will guide you there) and take another shared taxi to Yuksom. Taxis leave to Yuksom twice a day, once between 6-7 a.m and next between 12 p.m and 1 p.m. A shared taxi charges Rs 100 per seat from Jorhang to Yuksom.

* By Private transport - You start on the Guwahati highway and branch off to Sikkim in half an hour. The 5 hour journey takes you through Jorhang, Legship before reaching Yuksom.

On the way back, shared jeeps leave Yuksom to Jorhang at 6 a.m. Make sure to inquire about the vehicle and book a seat the previous evening.

Note: Jorhang has the last ATM and you get phone network in Yuksom and also Bhakim.

If you are joining our trek batch, we can arrange transportation for you from NJP to Yuksom and back. The mode of transport would be Sumos with six people sharing a Sumo.

Reaching NJP:

By Train - You can choose to come to Kolkata and take one of the many trains to NJP. If you are coming from Delhi or northern India, try to take any north east bound train which directly goes to NJP by passing Kolkata.

By Air - Flying to Bagdogra is another option that you can choose though flights to Bagdogra tend to be pricier than those to Kolkata.

Kolkata to NJP and back:

There are numerous trains which leave Kolkata in the evening 5 p.m onwards. Book on any of them preferably the ones reaching by 9 a.m. Our vehicles will be ready to pick you up from the station at 9 a.m.

For the return, book any train that leaves NJP after 6 p.m. This gives sufficient time for you to reach NJP from Yuksom in leisure.
